

Learning Kathak with Siddhi Goel

Hi, I'm a Kathak dancer, teacher, researcher & the founder of All Things Kathak- a platform for dance research, education and community building.

Who are my classes for?

I teach adults who are working, studying or home makers. All classes are ONLINE.

What are classes like?

- Interactive, and a combination of rigorous and light.
- The focus is on inculcating a genuine love for the dance form.
- Even if they don't pursue it as a career, my students show up to class with preparation, curiosity, and a genuine desire to learn and understand.
- We explore choreographies, watch dance videos & have healthy informal discussions and geek out over dance together.

Siddhi Goel is a professional Kathak dancer-teacher from Delhi, now based in Pune.

A disciple of Pandit Jai Kishan Maharaj, Siddhi is the recipient of Arts Research Grant from the prestigious India Foundation for the Arts, for her research on the Kathak and Bombay Cinema. She holds an M.A. in Arts and Aesthetics, from Jawaharlal Nehru University and is an alumni of Kathak Kendra, Delhi.

She has designed education modules for start ups and select schools of Delhi Govt (for a pilot project with Nalandaway Foundation).

A scholarship holder from Sahitya Kala Parishad, Govt. of Delhi, she was also Sahapedia UNESCO fellow 2017, creating an online multimedia module on Kathak.

She has trained for over 17 years, been teaching for more than 8 years and performed extensively with her Guru as well as independently.

I want to explore joining, whats the next step?

1. You will be asked to come for a free of cost trial class to assess which batch works best for you.
2. There are limited slots for one-on-one classes, if you are interested please mention.
3. Short term- beginner friendly Kathak orientation courses are routinely conducted every few months to take in new admissions.
